Harassment / Threats

- 12-756 09-27-12 A County Line Road resident reported that her daughter's husband had made threats against the family, stating that he would kill them all. The complainant did not want to sign a complaint; she was interested in obtaining an order of protection. The officer advised what she needed to do for the order of protection. No further action at this time.
- 12-759 09-27-12 A Sieberts Ridge Road resident contact BHPD to report receiving harassing phone calls. The complainant advised that a former employee continued to call after being told to stop. In contacting the offender, he advised that he is owed money and is trying to collect. The officer advised him the matter is civil, he should contact an attorney and stop harassing the complainant or he could face charges.

Domestic

- 12-738 09-19-12 An officer took a station report of a delayed domestic that occurred on County Line Road while traveling through Barrington Hills. The victim stated that his son takes medication, and when he doesn't take it, he can become violent. He advised that they were driving home and his son became violent and started hitting and kicking him. The victim advised that when he arrived home, Algonquin Police were called to the residence. He did not want to press charges because his son does not act this way while on his medication. The McHenry County State's Attorney was contacted and declined to press charges. The victim was given a domestic violence handbook. No further action taken.
- 12-747 09-22-12 Officers responded to an Oak Knoll Road residence for a reported domestic battery in progress. On arrival, the wife was located outside by the driveway, the husband was at the front door and the 10 year old child was inside. The wife advised that she and her husband were arguing over his cell phone and his refusal to let her see some text messages. The wife stated that her husband then struck her. The wife struck the husband back. Neither party wanted to sign complaints; there was no visible sign of injury to either party. The husband agreed to leave the residence for the night and let things settle down. Domestic violence handbooks were given to both parties. No further action taken.
